A dedicated Chase Private Client team provides premium banking services, personalized attention and access to the expertise and investment capabilities of J.P. "We're thrilled to be a part of the Westwood community," said Multane Elisnord, branch manager for the Chase branch in Westwood. "We look forward to building new relationships and helping our customers during life's most important moments, like opening their first savings account, buying their first home or planning for retirement."

Chase's continued expansion in Westwood is part of the bank's growth in Massachusetts that began in 2018. The bank now has 79 branches open across the state from Lawrence, to Springfield, to New Bedford, and has plans to open 50 more branches over the next two years.

"When Chase enters a community, we bring the resources of a global institution with a focus on local solutions," said Elisnord.
